Happy New Year! Even if we are well into it!

Artist Geoff Hayes and myself have organised our 'first term workshops' for 2012...see below, some spaces are still available.

And more images are on my website, where I update latest works. I have also been asked to produce a painting and giclee limited edition print for the upcoming Leura 'Automobile Picnic in the Mall', on Saturday 4th of February, all part of the '20's and all that Jazz Festival' throughout the month of February, here in the Blue Mountains.
